

Cost should not get in the way of starting and staying on your treatment. If you have commercial insurance,* you may be able to get SAPHNELO for as little as $0[†]

Two Options for SAPHNELO Co-pay Support

If your insurance covers SAPHNELO

If SAPHNELO is approved by your insurance, most eligible patients will pay $0* per infusion and may have access to up to $16,500 per year to assist with SAPHNELO out-of-pocket costs.

To be eligible for the SAPHNELO Patient Savings Program, you must:

- Have commercial insurance
- Have SAPHNELO approved by your insurance plan

If your insurance does NOT cover SAPHNELO

If SAPHNELO is denied by your insurance, please work with your healthcare provider, who can submit an appeal on your behalf. If the appeal is denied, you may be eligible for the SAPHNELO Denied Patient Savings Program.

The SAPHNELO Denied Patient Savings Program can provide up to 2 years[‡] of free product to eligible patients who are denied coverage by their insurance company.

Eligibility requirements include:

- New to SAPHNELO
- Prescribed SAPHNELO for FDA-approved use

[‡]Patients who enroll receive support for up to 24 months from the date of initial prescription.

Note: If your insurance does not cover SAPHNELO and you get a denial letter from your insurance company, please ask your doctor to contact AstraZeneca in order to take the necessary steps to qualify you for the Denied Patient Savings Program.

For most patients, your healthcare provider will enroll you in the co-pay support program after confirming your eligibility.

If you are instructed to self-enroll, you may do so by visiting azpatientsupport.com or call 1-866-SAPHNELO (1-866-727-4635) for assistance.

Important reminders for the above co-pay support options:

- The SAPHNELO Patient Savings Programs cover the cost of the drug and its administration,^{§,||} but do not cover costs for office visits
- There are no income requirements to participate in the programs
- Offers are invalid for claims and transactions more than 365 days from the date of service

*Commercial health insurance, or private health insurance, is any insurance that is not paid for by the government. Examples of government-paid insurance are Medicare and Medicaid.
